INTRODUCTION
From birth to career, there are many opportunities to develop strategies and interventions to increase attainment and improve workforce alignment. Below are some key areas and indicators that highlight where interventions may be possible to improve overall educational attainment outcomes.

Pitt County is in the Greenville Prosperity Zone sub-region. It’s one of 16 suburban counties in NC. Overall, 12% of 25-44-year-olds in Pitt County have earned a master’s degree or higher as their highest degree; 24% have a bachelor’s degree; 13% have an associate degree; 24% have some college, no degree; 19% have a high school diploma; and 8% have less than a high school diploma.

Building the Foundation: Pre-K to 8
High-quality early learning and strong academic progress in early years helps prepare children for future success.

Pitt County has 35 public schools with performance grades. Of these schools, 7 or 20% were classified as low performing in 2019.

Ready for College & Career
High school completion is a crucial step on the pathway to postsecondary success or the beginnings of a career. Activities that prepare students to navigate the transition to postsecondary include gaining experience in college-level coursework and applying for financial assistance.

Postsecondary Access and Success
These metrics capture student progression and educational attainment from high school graduation to postsecondary completion. They indicate relative strengths and weaknesses of Pitt County at each stage of the postsecondary pipeline.

Labor Market Outcomes
Lack of technical skills and lack of education are among the primary reasons why NC employers struggle to fill vacancies. These metrics capture labor market outcomes among recent graduates, the alignment between postsecondary degree production and labor market demand, and future job demands.

Opportunities for Growth
Compared to suburban counties and the state, these three areas represent the biggest opportunities for Pitt County to improve future attainment outcomes.

How students in Pitt County traditional public schools are currently doing:
To meet state goals, Pitt County needs:
• 282 more eligible 4-year-olds enrolled in NC Pre-K program (goal: 75% vs. 48%).
• 3,410 more 3-8 graders earning college-and-career-ready scores (level 4 or 5) in reading (goal: 73% vs. 42%).
• 4,968 more 3-8 graders earning college-and-career-ready scores (level 4 or 5) in math (goal: 86% vs. 40%).

To meet state goals, Pitt County needs:

Notes:
- Enrollments reflect degree- or credential-seeking undergraduate enrollments. The graduate or transfer rate is drawn from IPEDS and represents the share of students who either graduate with a degree or credential from the institution or transfer to another institution within 8 years. The 8-year outcome is the only measure that includes information on transfer out.

Local Cross-Sector Promising Practice: Pitt County Reentry Council

In Pitt County, leaders in the community wanted to address the consistent struggle of people reentering society after incarceration. The Pitt County Reentry Council brings together government officials, nonprofits and other groups dedicated to decreasing barriers for those coming out of the prison system.

We identified this example of an emerging cross-sector promising practice in partnership with local leaders. If you have additional examples you’d like to share with myFutureNC, please respond to this short survey.
