2020 County Attainment Profile

INTRODUCTION
From birth to career, there are many opportunities to develop strategies and interventions to increase attainment and improve workforce alignment. Below are some key areas and indicators that highlight where interventions may be possible to improve overall educational attainment outcomes.

COUNTY OVERVIEW
Stokes County is in the Winston-Salem Prosperity Zone sub-region. It's one of 28 rural metro counties in NC.

Overall, 3% of 25-44-year-olds in Stokes County have earned a master's degree or higher as their highest degree; 12% have an associate degree; 23% have some college, no degree; 35% have a high school diploma; and 13% have less than a high school diploma.

How students in Stokes County traditional public schools are currently doing:

To meet state goals, Stokes County needs:

1. 61 more 9th graders to graduate within four years (goal: 95% vs. 83%).
2. 107 more seniors to complete the FAFSA (goal: 80% vs. 54%).
3. 362 more students to attend school regularly (goal: 11% chronic absenteeism vs. 17%).

Students in Stokes County completed 281 Career & Technical Education concentrations in 2019. The top three CTE concentrations completed include Agricultural, Food, & Natural Resources; Health Science; and Hospitality & Tourism.

Building the Foundation: Pre-K to 8
High-quality early learning and strong academic progress in early years helps prepare children for future success.

Stokes County has 18 public schools with performance grades. Of these schools, 1 or 6% were classified as low performing in 2019.

Ready for College & Career
High school completion is a crucial step on the pathway to postsecondary success or the beginnings of a career. Activities that prepare students to navigate the transition to postsecondary include gaining experience in college-level coursework and applying for financial assistance.

Postsecondary Access and Success
These metrics capture student progression and educational attainment from high school graduation to postsecondary completion. They indicate relative strengths and weaknesses of Stokes County at each stage of the postsecondary pipeline.

Labor Market Outcomes
Lack of technical skills and lack of education are among the primary reasons why NC employers struggle to fill vacancies. These metrics capture labor market outcomes among recent graduates, the alignment between postsecondary degree production and labor market demand, and future job demands.

8.6% of teens ages 16-19 are not working and not in school versus 9.4% of peer counties.

Opportunities for Growth
Compared to rural metro counties and the state, these three areas represent the biggest opportunities for Stokes County to improve future attainment outcomes.

AP Participation
7% of Stokes County high school students took at least one Advanced Placement exam, below the rural metro county average of 10%.

High School Graduation
83% of Stokes County 9th graders complete high school in 4 years or less, below the rural metro county average of 86%.

Chronic Absenteeism
17% of Stokes County students are chronically absent from school, above the rural metro county average of 16%.

Notes:
Enrollments reflect degree- or credential-seeking undergraduate enrollments. The graduate or transfer rate is drawn from IPEDS and represents the share of students who either graduate with a degree or credential from the institution or transfer to another institution within 8 years. The 8-year outcome is the only measure that includes information on transfer out. Detailed data guidance is provided at http://go.unc.edu/countydata.
